

AMERICAN INDIAN SEMINAR

SECTION NE-2A

ORDER OF THE ARROW

The 2015 American Indian Seminar also known as AIS, will be the first cultural based event that Section NE-2A has ever hosted! AIS is designed to help lodges with their Dance Teams, Ceremonies, and Inductions. There will be multiple training sessions with hands on activities, round table discussions, evaluations, competitions. Two major events that will be taking place during AIS will be a native American Pow-Wow and a demonstration of the new Brotherhood ceremony.

Who Can Attend?

Anyone with an interest in the cultural aspect of the Order, lodge leaders, and anyone that wants to have a great time with people from around the section! Anyone regardless of which section they are in may attend the AIS!

Where:

The inaugural American Indian Seminar will be held at J.N. Webster Scout Reservation. Camp is located at 231 Ashford Center Rd. Ashford, CT

When:

AIS will be held on April 11, 2015. This one day event will begin at 8:30am when registration starts, and close at 4:30pm.

Cost:

The Cost for AIS is $15 if paid before March 27, the price increases to $20 after March 27. Make sure to register early!

Sign Me Up!

Registration information can be found on our website at ais.ne2a.org!

Questions?

Send an email to ais@ne2a.org

